DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim Status: 1-20 rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Elko et al. (US Patent No. 5,537,574).

Regarding Claims 1, 6, 11, and 16, Elko discloses a file device that records a file to storage means divided among a plurality of blocks, comprising:

block allocation means for allocating blocks to record the file in the storage means (see Fig. 1, CPC-1, CPC-M, column 5, lines 43-47, Elko);

management information production means for producing management information designating blocks allocated by the block allocation means (see Fig. 1, DASD Director, column 5, lines 48-53, Elko); and storage control means for recording the files in the storage means after recording the management information produced by the management information production means in the storage means (see Fig. 1, 101, column 5, lines 61-65, Elko).

Regarding Claims 2, 7, 12, and 17, Elko discloses a file device, wherein the storage control means attaches information indicating a preceding block and information indicating a size of data to be recorded in a block to the data recorded in the block and records to the storage means (see column 16, lines 40-48, Elko).

Regarding Claims 3, 8, 13, and 18, Elko discloses a file device, wherein the storage control means updates the management information so that, when a data-unrecorded block occurs among the blocks allocated by the block allocation means when recording the file, the unrecorded block becomes an unused block (see column 17, lines 2-8, Elko¹).

Regarding Claims 4, 9, 14, and 19, Elko discloses a file device, wherein the storage control means has storage sequence setting means for setting a storage sequence of data that makes up the file, the data that makes up the file being allocated among blocks to be recorded by the block allocation means based on the sequence set by the storage sequence setting means and recorded to the allocated blocks (see Fig. 32, 3201, column 51, lines 14-19, Elko).

Regarding Claims 5, 10, 15, and 16, Elko discloses a file device, having file readout means, such that when information indicating the preceding block does not indicate the preceding block as a result of the block being accessed in sequence depending on the management information, the file being read out, and data being read out from the block, or when information indicating the size of the data recorded in the block is outside the actual block size range, the file readout means halts readout of the file and updates the management information so that subsequent blocks become unused blocks (see column 51, lines 20-38, Elko²).

² The step of setting the field to 0 since the page can not be located corresponds to unused block, since the block is stored with no data.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's arguments filed 10/18/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant admitted in the amendment filed on 10/18/04 that Elko discloses a system corresponds to the claimed invention. The Elko's disclosure "storing a single independent file in a form of divisions of the file in separate units of storage means, respectively' of the present invention. in fact, according to Elko et al., each "data element ...as a single independent data collection”

Applicant argues Elko fails to discloses the step of “each division of the file, stored in a respective block of the storage means”

Examiner disagrees. Referring to Fig. 4, Col. 16, lines 30-50 Elko clearly disclose the method of dividing a file. Although applicant is arguing the step of “each division of the file, stored in a respective block of the storage means”, which is the preamble of the independent claims, the Examiner considered the preamble but did not give it much patentable weight since it was not in the body of the claims.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
